Academic Programme

Maximum class size is 12 international students + 1 English Student Host

(In exceptional cases, to place students at their correct level, maximum class size may be exceeded)

English Skills classes:

Topic based, graded classes (e.g. British culture, future societies, film & music) help develop core skills e.g. in using grammar, reading, writing, listening and building confidence in spoken English

- Students are tested as they arrive and allocated to English Skills classes depending on their level
- Continuous enrolment - classes/levels may change on a weekly basis
- This is not a course-book based syllabus. You will use a Scheme-of-Work (SoW), based on Trinity GESE/CEFR to plan and implement creative and active English Skills lessons. You will be given guidance and support in using our SoW
- Our programmes are exceptionally well resourced e.g. hard copy course books, access to online resources, and a bespoke online resource bank (ORB) created Discovery Summer teachers.

English Workshops:

English Workshops help students learn and develop by collaborating, discussing, researching and creating. They are fun, task-based sessions and encourage students to explore new areas and build confidence in important life skills e.g. problem solving, critical thinking, teamwork.

- Each week, students choose an English Workshop topic that interests them. They are mixed ability sessions.
- Detailed English Workshop plans are available for teachers e.g. research based (British culture), Creative/artistic (Pop Art), Performance Based (Drama), Practical (Cookery) and Tech based (Stop-motion animation).
- The week culminates in a presentation where selected students present their work in front of the school – invaluable practice in helping to develop confidence and presentation skills.

Pre-course

- Read the staff handbook and contact Head Office/Director of Studies with any questions you have
- Reply to emails from your Course Director and Director of Studies so that they can get to know you and allocate you to English Skills and English Workshops groups
- Access the online Schemes of Work and resources and arrive at the centre with ideas for engaging and creative lessons
- Attend the course induction on the 28 and 29 June 2018 and help set up the course centre (paid at 50% of normal rate)

Teaching Duties

- Prepare for and teach English Skills and English Workshop classes to an acceptably high standard, as directed by your Director of Studies
- Follow guidelines as outlined in Discovery Summer publicity materials, in the Staff Handbook and as explained by your Course Director/Director of Studies
- Alert your Director of Studies if you think a student has been incorrectly placed, if you suspect they have any special educational needs or if you think they qualify as 'gifted and talented'
- Establish which students are at international school and discuss with the Director of Studies how these students can be stretched and challenged
- Ensure that when classes are multi level, those at higher levels are provided with differentiated material appropriate to their needs and ability
- Quickly respond to any feedback that arises as a result of a drop in/full length observation
- Exploit every opportunity for students to learn English both inside and outside the classroom ensuring students of different nationalities mix as much as possible
- Ensure that tangible learning outcomes are presented to the students at the start of every lesson and every week.
- Prepare students for the end of week English Workshop presentations; ensure they feel confident about the material and that the presentation itself is reflective of the high standards of Discovery Summer
- Prepare students for the Trinity Exam in Spoken English if required
- Where required, involve and manage English Student Hosts in the classroom.

Administrative Duties

- Keep accurate lesson plans, registers, learner reviews, records of work and details of student behaviour, welfare and disciplinary issues using the DS Portal as required
- Assist the Director of Studies with placement testing if required
- Where required, contribute to the centre blog with fun, informative and interesting material
- Make sure that work in student folders is clearly marked and that all mistakes have been corrected
- Make sure that students are receiving sufficient feedback on their work and that you complete a weekly academic report for each student (even if students are not leaving)

The 'face' of Discovery Summer

- Ensure that the 'face' of Discovery Summer is upheld and that all students return home with a folder that is representative of the high standards of Discovery Summer with work which is clearly marked and that all mistakes have been corrected
- Ensure that classroom displays are fresh, informative and reflective of Discovery Summer's standards
- Make sure that students are receiving sufficient feedback on their work and that you complete a weekly academic report for each student (even if students are not leaving)
- Ensure that the content of the presentations is appropriate and meets Discovery Summer's expectations. There will often be visitors watching the presentations

General Duties

- Attend and participate in daily staff meetings and read the minutes of any meetings you cannot attend
- Ensure the safeguarding and welfare of students at all times, supervising students as required and responding sensitively to any pastoral matters
- Plan safe classes/activities in accordance with Discovery Summer guidelines
- Give timely, constructive feedback to your line manager
- If required, help pack up the course centre
- Carry out any other reasonable duties

Social Programme Duties

- Prepare students for and guide students on Wednesday afternoon excursions, passing on interesting information about the destination

All Discovery Summer Staff must:

- Commit to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all course participants (students, English student hosts, staff, group leaders and Discovery Summer visitors) at all times
- Provide the best possible language learning, social and cultural experience for the students
- Provide a high-level of customer care to students and all those associated with them
- Work cooperatively with both Discovery Summer colleagues and host centre staff
- Follow the guidelines in Staff Handbooks regarding the standards expected in your job and how to deliver them
- Maintain confidentiality (in accordance with Discovery Summer's Data Protection Policy)
- Complete all documentation as required
- Carry out directions from Head Office and comply with all legal and professional organisation requirements
- Present yourself well; being of smart appearance, appropriate to the role and using appropriate language
- Act in a thoroughly professional manner so as to uphold the good reputation of Discovery Summer

Discovery Summer's policy regarding alcohol, smoking and substance abuse

You are working with children. Consuming alcohol and substance abuse are not permitted at any time on campus or during working hours. Smokers may only smoke in designated areas when off duty. Staff must be fit to supervise students at all times. Failure to abide by these rules will be treated as a serious disciplinary matter and could lead to immediate dismissal.
